

The Daily Courant.

Friday, November 12. 1714.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 17.

Vienna, November 3.

TIS said the Swedish Minister and General, the Baron Groothuys, will speedily come hither to Compliment the Emperour in the Name of the King of Sweden, and that the Count of Althan will then be sent to make a Compliment on the Emperour's Part to that Prince. Our Court is much perplexed upon the Elector Palatine's Resolution of not surrendering the Upper-Palatinate without an Equivalent be given him, and has declared that he will suffer the last Extremity.

Schaffhausen, Nov. 8. Letters from Baden inform us, that when the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Peace was made, a Secretary of the Elector Palatine appeared there to make a Protestation against that Peace for so much as it concerned his Master, which Protest the Secretaries of the Emperour and King of France would not receive; but that however he caused it to be entred in the Register of the City's Chancery. We are assured that the further Reform of the French Troops is suspended that the Magazines in Alsace are replenished, and that in Burgundy and Lorraine Magazines are making of Cannon-Balls, Bombs, and Carcasses.

From the Hague Courant, dated Nov. 16.

Ratisbon, Nov. 8. On Monday the Diet deliberated in form upon several Heads that had been proposed on Saturday, and principally upon the Point of authorizing the Lieutenant-General Velt-Marshall of the Circle of Swabia, Baron Roth, to receive the surrender of Fort Kehl to the Use of the Empire; and the following Day the Diet concluded upon it, and a special Commission of full Power to that General was given accordingly. At the same time they gave the Emperour their most humble Thanks for the indefatigable Pains and paternal Care his Majesty has and continues to take for the good of the Empire. Upon the other great Matters they had under Consideration, as first, that concerning the providing for the Fortresses of Philipsburg and Kehl, they were mostly of Opinion that they ought to wait to see what the Assembly of the associated Circles which is ordered to be at Hailbron should resolve upon concerning it: But some declared that the other adjoining Circles ought to look upon the Imperial Fortresses as their Wall, and take Care of them accordingly. Several Debates ensued upon the Methods and Propositions of providing for them, but they came to no Resolution upon it, Concerning the raising the five Millions of Rix-Dollars and other Sums of Money demanded, some of the principal States would not charge themselves, others alledged that they could not agree to any new Payments before the States who were in Arrears upon former Subsidies have made good their Proportions, there being such Sums due upon that Account as might in great measure supply the present demand.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 15.

Munich, Nov. 9. 'Tis said that the chief Reason why the Jew Abenur, upon the Request of Count Welling, was seized, is that he had written to Stanislaus, whose Resident he is, that Count Welling had no Esteem for him, and sought only his own Interest. When this Jew's Papers came to be looked into, it appeared that he held a secret Correspondence with the Court of France; and the Secretary to the French Minister residing here being by, took all the Letters relating to that Court. Our Merchants are not at all displeased that he is seized, as believing that he gave Account of their Affairs to his Correspondents.

From the Leiden Gazette.

Frankfort, Nov. 10. The Hereditary Prince of Anhalt is returned to the Court of his Father. Some Swedish Officers who came hither from the Dutchy of Deux-Ponts are gone for Pomerania. The Deputies of the associated Circles will in a little time meet at Hailbron, to consider of the Number of Troops they must keep on Foot. There goes a Report that the Troops of the Elector Palatine which are at present in the lower Palatinate will march to the upper Palatinate; if that proves true there is little probability that that Country will be evacuated before a reasonable Equivalent be given for it to his Electoral Highness. A Stop is put to the further Reform of the French Troops.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 17.

Hague, Nov. 15. The Earl of Strafford, who went Yesterday to accompany the Countess his Spouse with her Sister to Rotterdam where they went on Board the Yacht that is to carry them to England, came back last Night, and this Day the French Ambassador made him a Visit. 'Tis said M. vander Dussen and the Count de Rechtersen, who were again this Day in the Assembly of the States-General, will return on Monday or Tuesday to Antwerp, to continue the Conferences upon the Barrier.

1. The Art of Canvassing at Elections, perfect in all Respects, and highly necessary to be understood by the Electors no less than by the Candidates. Written near Two thousand Years ago for the Use of the greatest Scholar and most consummate Statesman then in the World, and now published in the English Tongue, against the ensuing Election of Parliament. 2. Reasons for Naturalizing the Jews. To which is added, A Vindication of the Jews. Both printed for J. Roberts in Warwick-lane.

A Specifick Tincture for the Tooth-Ach, and all Disorders and Defects of the Teeth and Gums whatever; one drop of which gives instant ease in the most tormenting Pain, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the Tooth-Ach, so as certainly to prevent its return. It alluredly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those that are a little decayed from becoming worse; makes the foulest Teeth as white as Ivory at once using, softens those that are loose, and cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration.
It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but really preserves the Teeth and Gums from all manner of Foulness, Corruption, and Putrefaction, and may be depended upon to answer the Character here given of it, Literally in every respect. To be had at the starch with Blue Spikes in Haydon-yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle (which contains enough to last several Persons a great while) with Directions.

The famous Bavarian Red Liquor;

Which gives such a delightful blushing Colour to the Cheeks of those that are White or Pale, that it is not to be distinguished from a natural fine Complexion, nor perceived to be artificial by the nearest Friend. Is nothing of Paint, or in the least harmful, but good in many Cases to be taken inwardly. It renders the Face delightfully handsome and beautiful, is not subject to be rub'd off like Paint, therefore cannot be discovered by the nearest Friend. It is certainly the best Beautifier in the World: Is sold only at Mr. Poy's Toyshop, at the Angel and Crown in St. Paul's Churchyard near Chesapeake, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Magisterium Cosmeticum: The most Noble Beautifying Secret in Nature, rendering the Face, Neck and Hands incomparable fair, clear and handsome, freeing the Skin from all Spots, Wrinkles, Pimples, Roughness, Scurf, Morpew, Yellowness, Sun-burning, &c. and causing it to look plump, fresh, smooth and delicately fair, tho' before it was much wrinkled and discoloured; and this it does almost in an Instant: Words cannot express its transcendent Efficacy, it being indeed the most excellent Secret to procure and preserve a fine Complexion that ever was found out, and vastly surpassing all other Beautifiers, as Abundance of the Quality have experienced. It is very safe and harmless, of a pleasant Smell; and not in the least Troublesome to use. To be had only at the starch with Blue Spikes near the Square in Haydon-Yard in the Mi-nories. at 3s. 6d. a Paper with Directions.

The Incomparable Powder for cleaning the Teeth, which has given so great Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England. Sold only at Mr. Halsey's, Bookbinder, in St. Mi-cheel's Church Porch in Cornhill, and at Mr. Markham's Toy-shop at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstons Church, Fleetstreet. It is once using makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, tho' never so Black or Yellow, and effectually preserves them from Rotting or Decaying, continuing them Sound to exceeding Old Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Delirious, kills Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-Ach. Is admirably suited to loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and powerful Smell. Price 1s. the Box. At the same Place is sold, the highly esteem'd Lip-Glaze for Ladies, &c. of a charming and delightful Smell. Price 3s. the Box.
